

INTERNATIONAL MARITIME HEALTH

International Maritime Health is a journal in which original papers, review articles, letters and chronicle are published on health problems of seafarers, fishermen, divers, dockers, shipyard workers and other maritime workers, as well as papers on tropical medicine and health, on travel medicine, epidemiology and related subjects.

International Maritime Health is the continuation of the journal "Bulletin of the Institute of Maritime and Tropical Medicine in Gdynia", a quarterly of the same profile, 49 volumes of which were published during the last 5 decades. The journal changed the title in 1999 to INTERNATIONAL MARITIME HEALTH.

Publisher: Medical University of Gdansk

Inter-Faculty Institute of Maritime and Tropical Medicine in Gdynia

To subscribe to the journal, complete the form below and return to the address indicated

=====

YES, I would like to subscribe to the International Maritime Health journal in 2008.

The subscription rate for 2009 is 40 euros.

I attach a cheque (payable to the Medical University of Gdansk, Institute of Maritime and Tropical Medicine in Gdynia). Please arrange that cashing charges will be paid by the sender of the cheque.

I have arranged a transfer of 40 euros to the bank account of the Medical University of Gdansk Nr.76 1090 1098 0000 0000 0901 5327 in the bank:
BZ WBK S.A. O/Gdansk, Poland.

On the transfer instruction please write: Subscription for volume 60/ 2009 of the journal International Maritime Health. And please inform us that you have paid for the year 2009 by sending an e-mail to the address: tomasz@amg.gda.pl

Payment by bank transfer is preferred

Name _____ (in capital letters):

Address: _____

Country: _____

Post zip code _____

Email _____

Please send the form to the address of the Institute indicated on page 2 of this volume